County council sets out what it wants from new government

SOMERSET County Council has set out a manifesto for what it wants Westminster to help deliver for the county during this parliament.

A fairer funding settlement and progress on major infrastructure projects are among the items on the

"What Somerset Wants" agenda that the county council leader, John Osman, has been raising with Somerset MPs.

The May election produced four new MPs in the county and Councillor Osman is in the process of meeting each of them to make sure they all have a clear understanding of what the county council wants their help to deliver the required services.

"It is vitally important that Somerset gets a fair deal from central Government and our MPs will be a crucial part of that. I am keen to work with them and with Westminster to make progress in some key areas and it is essential that we speak as one in best interests of Somerset."

Some of the key points on the "What Somerset Wants" manifesto include:

- Fairer funding – a review of the local authority funding formula so that it better recognises the underfunding of rural counties (Somerset is ranked 113 out of 152 top tier authorities in terms of funding per person).
- Fairer funding for schools – a better deal for Somerset's pupils under the Designated School Grant (Somerset is currently ranked 121 out of 151 local authorities).
- Delivery of the dualling and improvements to the A303 and A358 – key to economic growth in the South West as a whole.
- Devolution – of more decision-making powers to the local level.
- Progress on the Hinkley Point C development – with the associated investment and jobs for the county.
- A long-term funding solution for the Somerset Rivers Authority – interim funding has been granted until the end of March 2016.
- Superfast Broadband – funding to the Connecting Devon and Somerset project to bring broadband to 100 per cent of communities.

Councillor Osman said: "We have long been campaigning for fairer funding and that continues – I would urge everyone to sign our online petition on the subject at <http://fairerfundingforsomerset.org>

"But there are other key pieces of the Somerset jigsaw that need to be in place if the county is to continue to prosper. They need the support of central government to really move forwards and I am determined to do everything I can to get that support."

AXMINSTER Town councillor in Twitter rap

AXMINSTER Town Council has become embroiled in yet more social media controversy.

Mayor Douglas Hull has written to all members, saying a councillor has apologised for tweeting "a link to a pornographic website" to the council.

Mayor Hull says the apology is the end of the matter, but district councillor Ian Hall says the integrity of the town council must be protected and that Councillor Paul Hayward ought to resign.

Councillor Hayward rejected all the accusations. He said a hashtag was there as a sign to warn people and avoid controversy, and added that he is the target of a politically-motivated campaign.

The tweet in question was sent on July 13th by councillor Paul Hayward to his followers, saying he was getting ready for a council meeting and referencing a music video by an artist called Nelly, adding the #NSFW hashtag, which, if anyone chooses to go down that route, leads to a regularly updated selection of tweets deemed Not Suitable For Work, some featuring nudity and sex.

Although not on the agenda, Pulman's View understands that a number of councillors were set to raise the issue when the town council met yesterday evening (Monday).

From the deputy editor's chair The complexities of social media

AXMINSTER Town Council never seems to be too far from controversy these days.

The latest incident to ruffle the feathers down at the Guild-hall concerns, what was to me, a somewhat innocuous tweet.

Said communiqué from Councillor Hayward referenced a lyric – "It's gettin' hot in here" – from a track by American rap artist Nelly.

Now, if you were to hunt down and watch the accompanying video to the song – 'Hot In Herre' – you'd find it contains a fair share of naked flesh and that it's unlikely to be shown on daytime TV anytime soon.

So, said tweet came with the hashtag warning #NSFW – meaning "Not Suitable For Work". Which perfectly sums up the 'Hot In Herre' video.

Was it inappropriate for a councillor to be referencing said track in a council related tweet? Probably.

Was it a bit odd he chose to do so in the first place? Definitely.

But fellow councillors went on to accuse Councillor Hayward of sending a tweet "of a pornographic nature" – is that really true?

For starters, a hashtag isn't really a link at all – it's a label used on social media to group together messages with a similar theme.

And, bearing in mind this hashtag is used to signify material "Not Suitable For Work", what do you expect to find if you search for examples of tweets marked #NSFW?

Whether or not you deem Nelly's video as pornography, the fact is the offending tweet didn't include a traditional hyperlink to either that video or anything else for that matter.

Now, if all this talk of tweets and hashtags is making you feel very old and yearning for the simpler, more innocent times of the 20th century – I'm with you.

But if you obviously don't understand something, why pretend you do and accuse someone of something so serious?

In my mind, all Councillor Hayward is guilty of here is making me recall a rather annoying Top Five hit from 13 years ago.

OTTERY St MARY Slade Road junction blackspot

A CALL for action has been issued over a dangerous junction in Ottery St Mary that campaigners fear is fast becoming an accident blackspot.

Angry residents and the local police team are now demanding double yellow lines along Slade Road to stop drivers parking right up to the junction.

They are growing increasingly concerned about the possibility of a serious accident in the area, with visibility hampered as motorists approach the town.

A petition signed by 250 people has also been handed to civic leaders in the hope that they can take up the fight. Councillor Glyn Dobson, the Mayor of Ottery, said the town council had been pressing county highways chiefs for the last two years but had been told there was not enough money available to tackle the problems.

"It is a dangerous junction and we will keep chasing it," he said.

SEATON Big crowds expected for outdoor festival

THOUSANDS of people are expected when the one-day Great Outdoors festival descends on Seaton.

Organised by Seaton Town Development Team, outdoor activities of all sorts will be promoted and celebrated.

Residents and visitors are encouraged to "get out and about" on Sunday, August 23rd.

"If you are into the wild and wet, thrills and spills such as BMX, or just wanting to be out in our gorgeous Jurassic coastline and countryside, the Great Outdoors Festival will have all you need to know about and lots of great activities to take part in."

EAST DEVON Rent cuts could ruin budget

GOVERNMENT plans to cut council house rents in East Devon will create a £7million black hole in the district's housing budget, council bosses have warned.

The proposed one per cent rent reduction is meant to help reduce tenants' monthly bills, but district housing chiefs fear the scheme will also scupper plans to manage their current stock while preventing them from building more affordable homes in East Devon.

Councillors are seeking to meet urgently with local MPs Neil Parish and Hugo Swire to discuss the proposals, which were outlined in the Budget in June.

They claim the government is seeking to 'move the goalposts' in a way that would disrupt a 30-year housing plan for East Devon, rendering it 'unviable' as a result of massive reductions to its ring-fenced housing revenue account.

Crewkerne cobbler takes world shoe repairing title

■ CHAMPION: Al shows off his trophy and the pair of shoes he submitted for the championships

CREWKERNE has a brand new world champion in Al King, who won the The Shoe Service Institute of America (SSIA) World Cup in Jacksonville, Florida.

Al works at The Menders and celebrates ten years in the industry this year. Having won the Rendenbach Shoe Repairer of the Year UK title last year, the Crewkerne cobbler added to his trophy cabinet and is now the world champion.

About 50 shoe repairers took part in the world championships, and Al finished top, ahead of a Swedish competitor.

In short, a repaired shoe must be submitted with its unrepaired mate as the judges need an unrepaired shoe to see how well the other has been restored to its original condition.

Al said: "It was good to go into a world-renowned competition and win. It is a privilege to be the winner but I don't class myself as the world's best, as not everyone entered, but I was the best on the day."

The competition was held as part of the SSIA annual convention, which also featured the American championships.

When asked how he celebrated, Al said: "The organisers threw a cocktail party, which was lots of fun seeing everyone dancing. The whole weekend was a celebration, everyone was so friendly."

Visitors to The Menders can get an up close view of Al's trophy as it is displayed in glass cabinet below a huge banner congratulating the cobbler on his world title.

It is early days, but Al hasn't ruled out trying to defend the title in two years' time.

Roads Minister says improvements to local routes are already underway

PLANNING for the long-awaited upgrade of the A303 and A358 in Somerset is already underway, the Roads Minister has told the county council.

Andrew Jones was in the Somerset as part of a tour of the South West, looking at existing and potential projects involving the Department for Transport.

This included the planned upgrading of the notorious A303 and A358 to dual carriageway, the Machelney road-raising and Beer Wall flood-prevention works, and important works in and around Taunton.

Having travelled along the A303 and A358, the Minister met county council representatives and local MPs at the Taunton Gateway Park and Ride where he confirmed that the wheels are already in motion for the upgrading of the key roads.

"It's a really important part of the next phase of the roads investment strategy and a project that is critical to the economy of the area," he said.

"Just because there aren't diggers on the ground doesn't mean that things aren't moving. Lots of planning work and preparation for this is taking place. This is my first major trip as roads Minister and that I have come to see this area shows how important the scheme is."

Somerset County Council led a partnership of local authorities lobbying for several years for "whole route improvement" of the A303 corridor, which has seen a number of serious accidents in recent weeks. The improvements are seen as key to tackling congestion and promoting economic growth in the county and the entire South West.

"The Minister's comments about the A303 and A358 were very welcome," said Councillor David Fothergill, Cabinet Member for Highways.

"This is a key issue not only for Somerset, but the entire South West, which is why we campaigned so hard for it and why we had so much support from partners like the Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership.

"Having the chance to discuss this and other projects face-to-face with a minister is a valuable opportunity to make sure Somerset's needs and priorities are not overlooked."

After the A358, the Minister visited the railway station and the Firepool Lock development in Taunton, before driving along the recently completed Beer Wall works on the A372 and out to the raised-road at Machelney.

Councillor David Hall, Cabinet Member for Cabinet Member for Business, Inward Investment and Policy, said: "I'm delighted to have had the opportunity to discuss with the Minister the importance of improving local infrastructure to support the economy of Somerset and the South West.

"It was great to hear his firm commitment that the promised road improvements remain a key priority for government."

South Somerset Scouts attend Japanese jamboree

A 36-strong group of Somerset scouts and scout leaders were part of the UK contingent at the 23rd World Scout Jamboree in Japan.

A total of 30,000 Scouts from more than 200 countries attended the jamboree in Kirara-hama. Alongside the hundreds of adventurous activities on offer at the jamboree, group members visited a Japanese elementary school where they were greeted with a fanfare band and several dance performances.

Leader Rob Cash, 28, from Yeovil, said: "It was an amazing experience which was truly unique and left us feeling very lucky. The schoolchildren had come in especially to host us and they were fantastic."

The next adventure for the group was a trip to Hiroshima, which was an incredibly moving experience for all of the young people and adults.

The trip encouraged each of the scouts to reflect upon the effects of war and how they could promote peace. They explored the park and museum and listened to scouts from around the world share their thoughts on what they had seen.

Alex Merrett, 18, from Stoke-sub-Hamdon, said: "The peace programme is all about promoting peace throughout the world and the jamboree is a great place to do this because boundaries between countries are not here."

"Countries that you see on the news at war with each other are there camping in the same place, maybe even next to each other, yet they are friends, they get along, they enjoy each other's company.

"Hiroshima just brings the peace programme into realisation. It shows just how innocent lives are affected every day by the actions of other people." Rob Cash added: "We are having an amazing time at this jamboree. I've seen the young people go from strangers to best friends – it is just unbelievable! It is overwhelming meeting scouts from all around the world who are like best friends just by being scouts."

During the jamboree the Somerset Scouts lived and worked in an international village with other scouts from around the world. They also challenged themselves to learn about global issues such as the environment and human rights, visited local Japanese attractions and taken part in water activities such as wind surfing, snorkelling and raft building.

Chief Scout Bear Grylls said: "While lots of people know that scouting is all about adventure, they often don't realise that adult volunteers get to do just as much as our young members through their involvement. The World Scout Jamboree is a great example of this.

"Nearly 4,000 scouts from across the UK are meeting 26,000 others from around the world and taking part in amazing adventures. That is why I love scouting so much."

Beautiful blooms at flower workshop

■ SUMMER BLOOMS: Ladies who took part in the flower arranging workshops with their finished bouquets and, below, Flo Peterson, daughter Gillian Slade and granddaughter Kirsty Slade who took part together

LOCAL ladies who recently attended a flower arranging workshop at Combe St Nicholas Village Hall, near Chard, each produced stunning hand-tied floral designs that wowed their families and friends.

The workshop was held to show anyone who is interested in flowers that even with no experience they can produce a beautiful, innovative arrangement in a relaxing, fun atmosphere.

Amongst the students were three generations of one family; Flo Peterson, her daughter Gillian Slade and granddaughter Kirsty Slade.

Flo, from Combe St Nicholas, said: "I never believed I'd be able to do something like this, I love what I've made."

"It was such a lovely, friendly morning. My neighbour was very impressed with my arrangement. My daughter and granddaughter were really pleased with theirs too, we'll be coming again."

Tutor Jackie Nicholls from Ashville Design added: "There is nothing better than getting together with people who love flowers and are keen to learn, it's so therapeutic and we always have a laugh along the way. This workshop was full of enthusiasm, excitement and fun."

"It's so rewarding when my passion for flowers is shared, particularly by those who have never done anything like this before."

"I'm so proud of everyone who came along and what they achieved and am really looking forward to the next workshop in September."

Rotarians applaud work to help orphans

CHARD Rotarians have been briefed about the work being done to protect abandoned children in India.

President-elect Barry Gibbs welcomed Nigel Studley, founder of the Frishta Children's Village in Chandigarh Punjab, North India, at the club's meeting on Tuesday, along with Judith McMurray of the Rotary Club of Dundee.

After dinner Mr Studley gave a presentation of the work he and his wife started in 2002 after being concerned about the fate of orphan and abandoned children in India during their visits to the country. He explained that after six years of difficult negotiations with the authorities building started in 2008 and now is home to 34 children in small house groups, each overseen by a house parent.

Mr Studley said they were anxious to create a homely atmosphere rather than an institutional one. The object is to give every child a home, an education, a hope and a future, he said.

In a country of such diversity, great wealth and grinding poverty, where hundreds of thousand of children die annually before reaching the age of ten, the work undertaken by the village is very important.

The small charity, which is based in Somerset, has no paid administrative staff or offices and so all contributions are used to aid the project. There are a number of ways to support the Studleys' work, by sponsoring a child, by regular giving or by a one-off donation. The charity can claim tax relief on donations by UK taxpayers.

After many questions, Mr Studley was thanked by Dick Arnold, a friend, for his excellent presentation.

If you would like to know more about the work of the Frishta Children's Village or would consider supporting it financially please ring Mr Arnold on 01297 678288 or see the website at www.frishta.org.

Fun-slingers head West for new panto

YEE-HA! The Chard Amateur Theatre Society is going to the Wild West for its pantomime production of 2016.

Panto at the OK Corral will be staged nightly at the Guildhall in Chard from January 28-30, 2016, with a matinee show as well on January 30.

But the panto group – known as CATS – is looking for people of all ages who would like to take part in this new pantomime, which will have all the traditional mayhem and hilarity.

Auditions are being held at Crowshute House in Chard on Tuesday, September 1 and Wednesday, September 2.

The Tuesday auditions, from 7pm to 8pm, will be for children only, while auditions for the adults will take place on the Wednesday from 7.30pm.

CATS are also looking for anyone who wants to join the group and get involved with the behind-the-scenes work – they say there is always plenty to do!

For more information please call 01460-65062.

New choir launched

MORE than 40 singers travelled from all over the region to take part in a Singing for Pleasure day at Chard's Holyrood Academy – which was so successful it has led to a new choir being set up in the town.

Trevor Lloyd Jones, the conductor, was delighted with the day. He said: "It was fantastic for the group to be producing such a pleasing, confident sound in such a short time. What potential."

Some singers had experience and others were complete beginners. Many have children in the Holyrood Academy Choir, also run by Mr Lloyd Jones, and were thrilled to have the opportunity to have a go at singing themselves.

Inspired by the enthusiasm of the singers Mr Lloyd Jones has decided to set up a choir based at the Academy. It will meet on Wednesday evenings. Contact Mr Lloyd Jones on 07542 512946 or by email tllloyd-jones@gmail.com if you are interested in joining.

History and poor weather challenge camera club members

EIGHTEEN enthusiastic members of Chard Camera Club signed up to attend the annual mystery trip, which was organised and run by husband and wife team Peter and Joyce Partridge.

The trip this year saw the club travel to Winchester for the day.

A club spokesman reported: "Unfortunately the good weather that we have been having broke and the club was plagued by drizzle for most of the day, leaving members ducking and diving to stay relatively dry in order to capture images as required by the visit.

"They were also hampered by the fact that many of the places on their list of images to be captured were being prepared for the various First World War and Second World War anniversary commemorative events."

The spokesman added: "However, they managed to obtain numerous images as required and they anticipate being able to use them in various competitions when club meetings resume in September."

Organisers say anyone wishing to join the camera club will be made welcome.

New start as performers entertain a name change

AFTER staging high quality musicals for over 50 years, Chard Light Operatic Society is changing.

At a recent special general meeting the members voted to become Chard Entertainment Society and expect that the new name and a broader range of productions will encourage more

by Anders Larsson

people to join the group and widen its appeal to local audiences.

The society tested the idea of moving away from exclusively musical productions in 2014 when it staged Dad's Army and the Wilmington-on-Sea Wartime Concert in association with the Royal British Legion and followed this in 2015 with a highly successful production of Allo, 'Allo! Now, in its new guise, the society is to team up with Chard Carnival Committee to present All the Fun of the Fair during Carnival week – on October 7th, 8th and 9th at Chard Guildhall.

This is a modern jukebox musical love story, based on the songs of David Essex and a book by Jon Conway. It has successfully toured the UK twice in recent years, as well as running for a limited season at the Garrick Theatre in the West End. What's more, it's set in a fairground, making the show a most appropriate production for carnival time.

Chard Entertainment Society chairman Neil Wells is delighted to be associated with Chard Carnival this year.

He said: "As a young child, I remember taking part in the very first carnival over 47 years ago. In those days, there was always a show on at the Guildhall during carnival week and my older brothers used to take part.

"As a community activity Chard Carnival is an important local event which not only gives a great deal of pleasure to both participants and on-lookers, but also raises a valuable funds for good causes.

"We are very pleased to join forces with Chard Carnival Committee to promote this year's event and hope that the town will come along and see Chard Entertainment Society's production of All the Fun of the Fair."

Tickets for the show will be on sale from September 14th from Baron's, Holyrood Street, Chard.

Teachers given food for thought

CHARD'S Holyrood Academy attracted over 20 delegates when it hosted the Food Teachers South West 'Investigate Food Somerset' event.

The one-day course helped teachers explore how best to deliver food science knowledge and high-level practical skills in the new Food and Nutrition GCSE.

Demonstrations were led by Simon Gray, senior associate at The Food Teachers Centre.

■ CENTENARY CELEBRATION: A former Chard resident has celebrated her 100th birthday. Dorothea Starey was born near Southampton and spent most of her working life as a midwifery tutor at Hammersmith Hospital in London. She moved to Gloucester following retirement but then moved to Chard, where she lived for about 20 years before going to Axminster two years ago. Abbeyfield Sheltered Housing in Axminster was the scene of Dorothea's birthday bash on August 5th. She was saluted in style as party organisers had enlisted the help of Axminster mayor Douglas Hull and town crier Nick Goodwin, the latter having composed a salutation especially for the big occasion. When entering the packed function room for her birthday party, she declared: "What a surprise." Pictured above: Dorothea is greeted by the mayor and town crier. Photos: Anders Larsson

IT'S OPEN FOR TRAFFIC! Seavington villagers see the new footpath officially declared open.

ON YOUR MARKS: Junior Seavingtonians assemble at the 'start line' to be the first to try out the villages' new path.

Villagers celebrate as new link route opens

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

SEAVINGTON Playing Field Association celebrated its 40th anniversary by unveiling a valuable new footpath link for villagers.

The launching of the newly-laid Seavington Access All footpath on August 2nd formed part of wider celebrations as the villages of Seavington St Michael and St Mary needed little excuse to have a good time.

A week-long programme of events was laid on from July 25th, including a flower festival in St Michael's Church, a fun afternoon, a proms in the car park and much more.

Speaking prior to the event, the SPFA's retiring chairman Pauline Parsons said: "It's wonderful to see the villages rallying again to put on such an exciting range of activities for everyone to enjoy."

"Maybe you won't find me at the front of the queue for Soak the Sucker but I'm really looking forward to seeing the dog agility display."

It is 40 years since the Seavington Playing Field was opened following a huge fundraising effort. A more recent community venture has been the building and running of the Seavington Community Shop and Cafe, adjacent to the playing field, and just five years old.

Both ventures have been developed substantially since their opening.

The playing field now boasts a popular playground, football pitch and memorial garden. The shop and cafe have become the hub of the villages, serving not only local residents but also visitors from surrounding villages and further afield.

Mark Ellis, chairman of Seavington Community Shop Association, said: "The shop and cafe are volunteer-led projects and I'm so proud of what we have achieved. It will be great fun to celebrate our fifth birthday and we look forward to the next five years."

These milestones reflect enormous achievement by the residents of two small Somerset villages.

South Somerset District Council chairman Mike Best was among invited guests and the footpath was opened by a member of the founding committee, Chris Wills. Old Seavingtonians who had been involved with the inauguration of the SPFA were also invited to help open the path and enjoy a picnic. Over the last six months local residents have overseen the project, which features a footpath across the playing field connecting the village to its facilities.

The 150-metre route provides "the perfect walk, ride or run" to Seavington Millennium Village Hall, Seavington Community Shop and Cafe and the two play areas. Ensuring that everyone is catered for, the path has been specially designed for wheelchairs, with the elderly and families in mind.

Local resident and project co-ordinator Ry Coffman said: "I used to struggle to push my grandchildren across the field in their prams just to get safely to the village shop and that's what initially gave me the idea for the path."

"The hall, cafe and village shop are great assets and getting there more safely using the field will be made even easier for everyone. The path was in response to a dire need to encourage access and use for families with buggies, somewhere for village children to learn to cycle, skateboard and scoot away from traffic."

It is the first phase of a scheme to put a path right around the playing field. The path has been funded by the Big Lottery Awards for All, South Somerset District Council, Seavington Parish Council and Seavington Playing Field Association. Construction was managed by local business Ash Bros of Seavington on behalf of the SPFA.

Pauline Parsons recognised the positive contribution the new route will make.

She said: "This important new path will provide safe transit for all, joining up our facilities, and will benefit the whole community."

SPFA was founded in 1974, purchasing the current playing field ten years later from the Dillington Estate.

School nurtures sports leaders

ILMINSTER'S Greenfylde Church of England First School has a strong commitment to sport.

As part of this, all Year 4 pupils are given the opportunity to train to be young 'sports leaders'.

In these roles they have to arrange sports events for other pupils and recently the school's Year 4s held a fun athletics event for Greenfylde's reception classes.

It was arranged by Bob Brunt, the school's sports development officer and his efforts were rewarded. The children showed a high level of enthusiasm for the task and coached the school's younger pupils to not only try a range of sports but also to challenge themselves to improve.

Having the chance to develop these leadership skills is very beneficial for the Year 4s, especially as they move on to Swanmead next year. A school spokesman said: "We are very proud of all they have achieved in securing their Young Leader Award for sport."

MINI MENTORS: Year 4 pupils at Greenfylde school help show reception class children how to enjoy sport.

Coppers make an arresting sight as Rotarians pile up change for charity

FOR the past two and a half years members of Ilminster Rotary Club have been sifting through their loose change and sorting out all their pennies to put towards an amazing challenge.

One of their members, Linda Piggott, who is currently club president, suggested she would aim to collect her weight in coppers so that Chard-based charity Action Aid might benefit. The target was 60 kilogrammes, which would require a seemingly countless number of one and two pence pieces.

It appeared to be an impossible task but slowly and surely the initiative progressed to the point where, a week ago, Rotarians assembled after one of their regular meetings to count their collective spoils.

The first difficulty had been to carry many small buckets-full into the counting room, but this was only the first struggle. With the coins poured out onto two long table-tops, the task next was to separate out the two different denominations so that the coins could be assembled in one-pound bags... a huge number of one-pound bags.

It eventually took over an hour for 20 Rotarians in relays to clear the tables. Once the many bags of coppers were later checked by the long-suffering bank tellers at Nat West, the total value was over £143, even though the total weight fell just short of the 60kg target.

But Linda's persistence and pestering now means that in some still-to-be-determined Third World country a desperately poor community will now benefit to the tune of two goats, two chickens and a cow! Well done, Rotary!

■ COINING IT: Ilminster Rotarians count up their spare change and turn it into foreign aid for worthy causes.

Pupils showcase their art

TALENTED pupils at Greenfylde Church of England First School in Ilminster have presented their inaugural art exhibition at the Meeting House.

Young artists, aged from four to nine, showed the community their talents using a range of media, proving, says the school, that the artistic future of Ilminster is flourishing in their hands.

The exhibition was the culmination of a year of arts that has seen pupils taking part in a range of experiences relating to music, art and drama.

A spokesman said: "As a school we firmly believe in supporting the holistic development of our pupils and that includes allowing them as wide a range of experiences as possible to let them explore their future potential."

Concert for Samaritans

THE Ilminster Arts Centre will be hosting a charity concert later this year in aid of the Taunton and Somerset Samaritans.

Esperanto will be performing at the arts centre on Saturday, September 12, from 8pm, with tickets priced £12.

Esperanto brings together two of the South West's finest Spanish guitarists - Jon Boys and Mark Barnwell. Following a chance meeting on an international flamenco forum in 2004, the two have been collaborating ever since, snatching the opportunity to play a handful of concerts each year in between their own busy schedule as soloists.

Contact the Ilminster Arts Centre box office on 01460 54973 for ticket details. The concert is being sponsored by solicitors Broomhead and Saul.

Carnival collectors sought

ARRANGEMENTS are well under way for this year's Ilminster Carnival, which is taking place on Saturday, October 3.

To try and improve the collection which is used to help secure the carnival's future and to support local groups and organisations the carnival committee is looking for volunteers to come forward and help collect during the procession. This can be as individuals or in groups. If you are interested please go to the committee's website at www.ilminstercarnival.co.uk and download a collection form and return to the address given.

Entry forms for the Carnival procession are also available on the website. Closing date for entries is September 1.

Oars well that ends well for racing rafters

A CREWKERNE team of pumped-up paddlers made a big impression at Bridport's annual raft race – and although their rapid-rafting heroics were not enough for them to be crowned champions, they did win a prize.

A total of 20 teams took part in the West Bay challenge, with competitors coming from across the South West and representing everything from Minions the movie characters to wine bottles on the water. The team from Oscar's Wine Bar in Crewkerne – dubbed The Magnificent Men in Their Rafting Machine – was judged to be the most entertaining, after struggling to get from the slipway to the starting line – and they proudly took The Pearce's Paddle. Also competing from Crewkerne was a team from Wydale Plastics.

Annie Taylor of Bridport RNLI said: "It went really, really well and with the weather it was a glorious evening." There was a fantastic turnout and in total we collected £3,000 – each raft and sponsorship made just over £1,700 and we collected £1,200 from the buckets.

"I think there was more people than ever before. A big thank-you to the George Hotel (West Bay) for their sponsorship and a huge thank-you to James Radcliffe, the harbourmaster, and the whole Bridport RNLI committee."

Motorwell reigned supreme, narrowly beating the Bridport Round Table team, who were a very close second, taking home the winners' Eris Hamblett Trophy. Lanehouse Vauxhall's Minion Madness team was awarded the George Hotel Cup for the best dressed and also went away with the Ernie Hix Memorial Cup for the most sponsorship money raised – £270.

Folk star joins choir to revive town's ballad

REG Meuross and The Crewkerne Crewners will entertain during a world premiere complementing Crewkerne Museum's Pub Crawl in Crewkerne: A History of Pubs and Inns.

The event will take place on Friday, August 14th, between 7pm and 9pm.

Museum volunteer Janet Harris said: "Together, Reg and The Crewkerne will perform the world premiere of The Countryman's Ramble Through Crewkerne, a recently discovered 19th century ballad."

Janet added: "Winner of the Fetea Best Male Vocal 2013 award, and FolkWords Best Album 2014 for his latest album England Green & England Grey, Reg is a true modern troubadour, representing contemporary English folk writing at its best."

"Telegraph Music calls his work 'powerful and moving songwriting'."

Reg was introduced onto the stage of the Albert Hall, London by Mike Harding as "one of this country's finest singer songwriters".

Janet said: "He always captivates audiences, however large or intimate the venue, with his musicianship, his storytelling and his beautiful tenor voice."

Also performing will be members of The Crewkerne Crewners, the town's community choir. Crewkerne resident, Victoria Le-Fort, who discovered the ballad, was researching online for historical records on Crewkerne's history for her own personal interest.

She found a site that featured a page from a folksong book archived in Canada.

She said: "I found it fascinating and promptly copied it down. I wondered if anyone at the local information centre, council or museum had seen it."

"It soon transpired they hadn't and were all very excited to get hold of it."

Having lived in Crewkerne for several years, Reg was a clear choice to set this traditional folk ballad to music and teach it to The Crewners.

He'd been hoping to find a folk song about Crewkerne for decades.

"I'm very pleased I could help out," said Vikki. Janet added: "If people would like to find out what happened to the countryman as he roamed the town and enjoy a visual pub crawl around the museum's current exhibition, they should come to this unique event."

Tickets are £7 and include entrance to the exhibition and light refreshments. They can be booked by phoning 01460 77079 or emailing crewkerne-museum@hotmail.co.uk or by calling into the museum or the local information centre.

Street fair team promises bigger and better event

ST Bartholomew's Street Fair organisers are pushing the boat out, promising an action-packed two-day event in early September.

A brand new website has been opened to promote the occasion, and the number of stalls already booked is close to 40 – with more to come.

This year the event will be held on September 4th and 5th. The Rotary Club of Crewkerne District is organising the historic gathering, and PR and media officer Sandra Shore said: "We are actively trying to revitalise the fair, with more market stalls this year covering two days."

"We hope to grow this event year on year. This year we have consulted with a professional company with a view to putting in place a better road traffic management system, which we believe will enhance the event for all concerned."

In addition, organisers are talking to local companies that use heavy vehicles to make them aware of the event and asking them, if possible, to schedule their vehicles accordingly to avoid congestion.

St Bartholomew's Fair is an annual event and dates back to Saxon times. It was recorded in the

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Domesday book. Sandra said there are a number of stalls reserved for charitable/non-commercial causes, and anyone interested is asked to get in touch as soon as possible to check availability.

She added: "We are currently inviting more stallholders, and have space for several more on Saturday, September 5th, when we will be expanding from Falkland Square into the George Precinct."

Interested stallholders can download a booking form for the event from the dedicated website www.crewkernefair.co.uk.

Information is also available on 01460 78214. According to organisers, there has been a funfair in the main street of the town (the A30) since at least 1861, which was accompanied by a major traders' market.

Although diminished in scale in the post-war years, the fair is a survivor.

The current owner of the charter is The Rotary Club of Crewkerne District.

Historically, a chartered fair was a major annual regional market granted the right to be held by the king.

App alert for drink drivers

THE dangers of driving the morning after a drinking session are being highlighted in a new app which is being backed by Somerset County Council's road safety team.

The free app, called the Morning After Calculator, works out approximately how long it takes for alcohol to pass through your body and is designed to help stop people unknowingly drink-driving the following day.

So if you've enjoyed a few beers or a glass of wine with your summer barbecue, you can enter how many drinks you've consumed and the app will calculate roughly when you are likely to be alcohol free again.

The council's road safety spokesman, Cllr David Hall, said: "Let's make one thing absolutely clear – this app is not intended to help people work out how much they can drink on a night out before driving home. And it won't help if you are arrested for drink-driving."

"If you are drinking any amount of alcohol on a night out – even one drink – you should leave the car at home and make alternative arrangements."

"What this app will do is calculate roughly how long alcohol stays in the body, which is useful to remind us all just how long it takes to return to normal following a heavy night."

The app allows one hour for each unit of alcohol, plus an additional hour for the alcohol to enter the bloodstream, and then rounds up the calculation to the nearest half hour.

The calculation is not based on any drink-drive limit – it is the length of time when the alcohol in the drinks the person has consumed is likely to have passed through their body.

You can download the app for free via the Morning After campaign website and from the Google Play store and iTunes.

COVER STORY: Over 70 local residents from Cricket Malherbie, between Chard and Ilminster, and surrounding villages turned out to support their fundraising barbecue and quiz, held in the church grounds, and to provide much needed funds for the church roof. Organised by churchwarden Maggie Griffiths, the event featured burgers and sausages provided by Ilminster butcher Bonners. The bangers went down so well that county councillor Linda Vjeh went back for seconds, and thirds, before she tucked into the luscious cherries provided by Whitehouse Farm and went on to win a pink hobby horse in the raffle. Pictured above are, left to right, district councillor Sue Osborne, county councillor Linda Vjeh, Dave Osborne and Steph White.

Lib Dem councillors offer advice

LIBERAL Democrat councillors across South Somerset have set up advice centres in Chard, Yeovil and Crewkerne.

They hope to help people with any problems they may have, for example, on the subject of housing, planning, financial hardship, anti-social behaviour or transport and traffic. The councillors in Chard will be running their advice centre at the Forefront Centre, 42 Fore Street, Chard, every first and third Saturday of the month, from 10am to noon. The first advice centre will take place on the August 8th.

The councillors in Yeovil will be running their advice centre at the Yeovil Liberal Democrats Office, 5 Church Street, Yeovil.

The first advice centre will take place on August 8th from 10am to noon.

The Liberal Democrats in Crewkerne will be continuing to see members of the public every third Saturday morning of the month at the Crewkerne Town Hall in Market Square. The next advice centre there will be on the August 15th.

Park walk to help hospice

A SPONSORED charity walk is being held by St Margaret's Somerset Hospice on Sunday, October 4, in order to raise much-needed funds to help patients and their families who face a life-shortening illness.

This popular annual walk is celebrating its tenth consecutive year, making it a key event in the charity's fundraising calendar. Once again it is sponsored by Porter Dodson Solicitors. This year the walk will be changing location to Ham Hill Country Park near Yeovil.

A choice of two routes are on offer – a 5k family-friendly route and a 15k course that is recommended for those who enjoy more of a challenge.

The event, organised by Sonia Bateman, events co-ordinator at St Margaret's, will end with a memorial ceremony at 6pm during which attendees can light a candle and dedicate their walk to a chosen person. If you wish to take part in the walk – visit somerset-hospice.org.uk or phone 0845-345-9671.

Children under five are free to take part, while ticket prices range from £5 to £25. Dogs are welcome, while children aged under-16 must be accompanied by an adult.

Guide dog fundraiser

THE Yeovil & Crewkerne Fundraising Group for Guide Dogs is to hold a coffee morning from 10.15am to 12.30pm on Saturday, August 15th, at Torosay, School Lane, Seavington St Michael (TA19 0QD).

Organiser Carolyn Farler said: "It will be in the garden, weather permitting. Coffee and cakes will be on sale and there will be some puppy walkers, guide dog owners and their dogs available to talk to people about their experiences."

Silk Stocking Lingerie

Silk Stocking is celebrating their milestone 18th anniversary and offering a special sale rail, where a variety of ranges are reduced by up to 70%, now priced at the promotional offer of just £18 per garment!

SHIRLEY Bailey, owner of Silk Stocking has a wealth of experience in specialist fittings after being in the lingerie business for nearly three decades. Shirley learnt her trade in a small department store where she loved meeting customers, giving them her time and advice. After attending her initial lingerie measuring and fitting course she realised that there wasn't a huge choice for ladies with a larger bust, a lot of ranges, especially the pretty ones stopped at a D cup. After considering that options were somewhat limited Shirley saw the opportunity for a specialist lingerie shop and realised her dream of owning her own business. Shirley opened the doors to Silk Stocking eighteen years ago. After six very successful years of offering specialised guidance for buying bras and undergarments the store was moved two doors down to a larger premises, where the Silk Stocking still is today. Through a lot of word-of-mouth recommendations from satisfied customers and repeat, loyal custom from ladies near and far the positive reputation of the shop grew and grew. As has Shirley's knowledge, attending regular training courses and learning from feedback from each and every customer.

If you would like a specialist fitting or some friendly advice call into the shop and speak with Shirley and her small team, they will be delighted to help.

The specialist shop is a local favourite, a huge variety of ladies lingerie is kept in stock in a wide range of sizes as well as swimwear, nightwear and a selected range of fashions.

Celebrating our 18th Anniversary

More than three quarters of women wear the wrong size bra, to make sure you aren't one of them visit Shirley and team at The Silk Stocking.

Shirley has been successfully fitting customers for 28 years the last 18 years of which in her own successful shop.

A specialist service that has seen repeat, loyal custom from ladies all over the country.

Q&A with Shirley

Why are people wearing the wrong size?

Some ladies have just never been fitted and have even worn the very same size all their lives. Those who have sought advice maybe haven't done so regularly and not taken into account the changes and fluctuations over years. Or unfortunately due to the lack of specialist advice, I often hear accounts and see evidence of incorrect fittings from other stores. Getting measured and fitted in the Silk Stocking is a different experience to any chain shop that often fit for their own brand of bras that are a different size scale to the well-known brands.

Why is it important to get fitted?

Wearing the correct size bra not only improves comfort it also improves health and posture making ladies look and feel better.

Often customers come in for health reasons and getting correctly fitted can prevent back/neck ache and shoulder pain. It is also important to get correctly and regularly measured during pregnancy and fitted for suitable non-wired or maternity bras. It is also especially important after breast surgery.

What is the most common size you sell in the Silk Stocking?

This will surprise people, 34/38 F. Years ago bra sizes stopped at a D/DD. Times have changed with our knowledge of measurements and subsequently products available so an F cup is actually quite average.

How does your service differ from other shops?

I offer a personal service where as other shops don't. I have trained my staff and stock the sizes for beautiful larger ladies in a variety of styles. We take our time to measure, fit, assist, advise and really offer a personal shopping experience.

What's your best selling brand and why?

Not necessarily just for bras but would say Sloggi for comfort.

What is your best selling bra and why?

Fantasia and Freya (now owned by Wacoal) for larger bust ladies as the vast ranges start from a D cup. Also Lepel for all generations.

What specialist Lingerie do you stock and fit for?

We offer a discreet and understanding measuring and fitting service for mastectomy wear. Also for maternity and bridal wear. We also sell bra-sized swimwear that we advise on.

7 Steps to the perfect fit

1 - The band around the bra needs to be firm but comfortable

2 - Ensure the back of the bra is in line with the front of the bra and is fastened on the loosest hook

3 - The cups should not come too high underneath the arms as this may cause rubbing and discomfort during wear

4 - The whole of the breast should fit neatly into the cup, with no excess flesh behind the cup or over the top of it

5 - Wires and boning must lie flat against the body and go right around the contour of the breast

6 - The centre front of the bra between the breasts should lie flat against the body

7 - Straps must only be adjusted until you feel the breast is supported into its natural position, usually half way between the shoulder and the elbow

The most common fit mistake is that many of us are wearing back sizes that are too big and cup sizes that are too small.

There is a lot more choice these days with cup sizes ranging from AAA through to N and band sizes from 28 to 56.

Bridal Lingerie

BRIDAL underwear is as important as the gown itself on your wedding day. It is vital that you look and feel beautiful on your special day, all day.

At Silk Stocking, they take pride in their range of stunning lingerie and bridal underwear, which includes bras, basques, bodices, and a variety of briefs, suspender belts, hosiery and bridal accessories.

The designs vary from seamless and shape-wear to delicately embroidered fancy styles. The designs cater for the variety of dress designs. Off the shoulder and low back designs are extremely popular and it is important that supportive lingerie is fitted to flatter each individual style. With the vast range of lingerie available you will also find something suitably tasteful for your honeymoon.

Swimwear is kept in stock all year.

Swimsuits, Tankinis and Bikinis come in all sizes and with matching accessories and cover-ups. Make an appointment and bring along your wedding outfit to be fitted correctly.

16th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 29 AUGUST 2015 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

It's That Time of Year Again!

AS THE August Bank Holiday draws near the small families of rabbits, who normally enjoy a bit of peace and quiet on one of our former wartime airfields, know that it's time to go on their own vacations. The former naval air station 'HMS Dipper' at Henstridge is gearing itself up for one its biggest annual events... 'Wings and Wheels'. While it may not be quite as noisy or dramatic as the wartime years when, as H.M.S Dipper, it was host to a constant procession Fleet Air Arm squadrons training and working-up; it can still see over a hundred light aircraft and scores of vintage and classic vehicles gathering on the airfield. Add to that the hundreds of visitors, and the ever early-rising teams of stewards and marshalls, and you can see why 'bunny' seeks somewhere less busy for his Saturday frolic.

August 29th is the date for your diary and it several decades. It's true that their uniforms, apart from the ATC cadets of course, are a bit on the casual side....to say the least! But between them they have organised and participated in the best part of five hundred similar venues spread over a score of airfields. It is no surprise that they take great pride in the fact that their first-aid providers have only been troubled for the occasional wasp-sting and an asprin; the latter is usually for the 'boss' with the headache from trying to keep an eye on it all.

While every year is always something special, there is never room for any complacency in this business, this year's event is a bit extra special. For a start it is the 15th Anniversary of the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance on whose behalf the event is staged; and, more importantly perhaps at a national level, it also marks the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain.

As always G-DORS, the current helicopter, will cross over to crowd-side and her crew will be happy to give visitors a look around and to chat about her role and achievements. This is one of the rare opportunities for her supporters and admirers to get 'up-close-and-personal' to this vital piece of life-saving equipment.

The second important anniversary will be marked by the regular roar of the Merlins which power the aircraft of the BBMF. This is more than a little significant as both Spitfires and Seafires were regularly based at Henstridge and made full use of its original five runways. Needless to say the visiting Spitfire and Hurricane will not be 'landing-on'....though they may well be low enough to give that impression! As we go to press we can confirm that, although originally allocated, the BBMF's Lancaster will be unable to appear. The aircraft, now affectionately known as 'Thumper' from her 617 Squadron colour scheme, suffered a major fire in her Number 4 engine while on a pre-season practise sortie. The latest from the Flight is that she is unlikely to even begin air-testing before the end of the season.

The admission price for Wings & Wheels has been held for yet another year at just £5:00 for adult visitors. Accompanied youngsters under sixteen are welcomed free and there are no additional car-park charges. It makes for a low-cost, high-interest family day-out. And, even if you're not a plane or car enthusiast, you won't want to miss the legendary 'Joe's Barbie' for a mouth-watering munch before you stroll around the visiting aircraft. The gates open at 10am and the event winds-down around in the late afternoon with the BBMF providing the dramatic finale around 5:30pm.

Don't forget to look at page (PAPER PLEASE NUMBER) where your 'View From' newspaper has a special competition giving one lucky reader the chance to take to the air in a genuine World War 2 de Havilland Tiger Moth. And, if you arrive on the airfield before noon, your numbered copy of the day's Safety Notice may well win you a similar exciting experience in the lunch-time lucky-draw.

marks the sixteenth staging of this popular show which still remains a volunteer-led enterprise. Not that you would notice it since, like all aviation events, it is run within stringent guidelines by a team who have worked together for

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 29 AUGUST 2015 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

From Two-Wheels To Six!

THE presence of classic and vintage vehicles at aviation events is nothing new. They can both represent the quality and infinite variety of their respective manufacturers. To put it more simply...they both look good on their own and they look even better when they can be admired together.

Even in the early years the cars and the other vintage and classic machines quickly earned their rightful place on the posters and the original fly-in was re-named as 'Wings & Wheels'. As with our pilots, the drivers are requested to 'register' in advance. Unlike many shows this is not to permit some kind of prestige-vetting; it is simply because Henstridge Airfield is somewhat 'strapped' for display space. That may seem a little peculiar since everyone knows that war-time aerodromes were nothing if not somewhat large affairs. However, most of the airfield's current real-estate is located across the runway on north-side and is therefore a definite 'no-go' area for public events.

Despite this obvious lack of available grass, the organisers...by some careful planning, some tight parking and more than a bit of luck...have never had to decline a would-be applicant. Indeed, on those occasions when a rare or worthwhile exhibit turns-up un-announced (out-of-the-blue like some of the aircraft) the stewards somehow manage to find those extra few square-feet to display it.

The dreaded 'Rules and Regulations' are kept to a minimum and everyone works hard to ensure that the day is as informal, relaxed and safe as possible. 'Wings & Wheels' are justifiably proud of their reputation for being a truly old-fashioned, traditional and, above all, friendly event. So, whether you are into A.J.S. Armstrong Siddeley and Alvis or prefer Zephyrs and Zodiacs...the chances are you'll find them at Henstridge on Bank Holiday Saturday. And 'yes' there's always the chance that there will be an olive-green GMC 'deuce and a half' amid all that chrome!

WIN a Flight in a War Time Tiger Moth

The publishers of View From newspapers are delighted to be able to offer you another chance to win an exclusive and exciting prize. In conjunction with our friends at Wings and Wheels, we have secured a further opportunity for one lucky reader to follow in the slip-stream of the Battle of Britain pilots. You too can take to the same summer skies over Dorset and Somerset. This is your chance to win an AIR EXPERIENCE FLIGHT IN A LEGENDARY WAR-TIME 'TIGER MOTH'....this much loved little aeroplane was the probably the first aircraft that the fighter-aces encountered as they began their training.

Our lucky winner last year, herself no stranger to aviation, described it as..."Simply the experience of a lifetime!" Your pilot on the day will be one the top-flight trainers from the airfield-based Tiger Moth Training (www.tigermothtraining.co.uk) and your aircraft will be one of their three immaculately restored World War Two examples based on the airfield. YOU might be the one to be flying over Henstridge on the very same day as the historic Hurricane and Spitfire from the BBMF!

Just answer the simple questions and return to our offices: c/o Rob Coombe, Wings & Wheels competition, View From Newspapers, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB before the closing date of Friday, 21st August 2015. Winners will be picked at random, editors decision is final.

16th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 29 AUGUST 2015 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

'Wings & Wheels' at Henstridge

August Bank Holiday Saturday will see the sixteenth staging of this most popular event. While it was first conceived as an end-of-season fly-in for just vintage and classic aircraft it was soon attracting large numbers of restored vehicles and all types of aeroplanes. In its second year it was joined on the airfield by the helicopter of the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance and the re-titled event then became dedicated to raising funds and awareness for this vital charity.

The show has remained a 'must-visit' venue for pilots and drivers alike, many making lengthy trips in their often elderly machines to be present on this former naval air station. The organisers are made up of a combination of the airfield's regulars supported by volunteers from the former 'Vintage Flying' team; often with additional, and much appreciated, help from xxxsq-nATCxxxxxxx. Together, they work hard to maintain their reputation for the event's informal atmosphere and very modest admission price. Adult visitors pay just £5:00 and accompanied under-sixteens are welcomed free. This must make it one of the cheapest family days-out in the area...and it's all in such a good cause.

If the flying weather is kind across the south of the country, visitors can expect to see over a hundred light aircraft landing on Henstridge's main or grass runways. Many pilots may have come from airfields and farm-strips as distant as Kent, East Anglia, the Midlands and the far South West. Most will try to arrive before lunch when the team re-position the barriers so that everyone can walk freely and safely through the air-park. This unique opportunity for close-up viewing is a 'Wings & Wheels' feature that ensures its constant popularity...many of the audience planning their annual holidays to include it on their schedule. Among the other highlights are the exciting displays by the model fliers; the 'meet-and-greet' visits to crowd-side by the air ambulance; the chance of a spectacular 'twizzle' by one of the departing display teams; and the annual 'fly-past-salute' by the historic aircraft of the BBMF. Almost as much a highlight is the renowned lunch-time Barbecue and Hog Roast; something that finds favour alike with visitors, drivers, pilots and any off-duty volunteers.

This year is the 15th Anniversary for the DSAA and it is also the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain. The events commentator will chat about of these and with special emphasis on the squadrons that fought over the harvest fields of Dorset and Somerset in 1940. To mark the occasion the show will close with the fly-past by the BBMF Spitfire and Hurricane. As an extra tribute, all visitors arriving before...will get free entry into a 'lucky-draw' to win a flight with airfield based Tiger Moth Training in one of their three war-time 'Tigers'. Gates open at 10 o'clock...don't be late!

What's Coming In Next?

VISITORS who regularly attend airshows, but have not previously been to a 'Fly-in', may well be left wondering why there is no official programme or timetable. The answer is that no-one knows which aeroplane will be the next one to call 'finals' before touching down on Henstridge's runways. The pilots will have been politely requested to make a booking in advance, but arrival times are never specified. The simple fact is that to do so would be a near impossibility. The aircraft can vary from vintage pre-war biplanes to the latest sophisticated tourers...with home-builds and micro-lights in there for good measure. Their flights can be an easy 'five-minutes-downhill' from Compton Abbas or a long haul in from East Anglia or deepest Devon.

If those were not enough in the way of complications, then there are always the fliers who make up their mind to 'drop-in' on the day. Everyone is always welcome and, in the last fifteen years of Wings & Wheels, no pilot has had to be turned away.

Then there is that final deciding factor from which no aviation event can escape...the good-old British weather. Light aircraft are obviously particularly prone to the whims of 'the bloke upstairs'. If the Metcast looks at all 'iffy' then it's not worth trying to make it in. The maxim about 'old pilots and bold pilots' applies at all times. Some aircraft are of course more susceptible than others. As the commentator often (and always politely!) points out... "would you fancy an hour so in a 90 mph open-cockpit bi-plane on a wet morning, with a 40knot headwind and the cloud-base on the deck?" But, when the skies are blue and the winds are light then Henstridge can, and does, attract well over a hundred planes. And what is more the public get the almost unique chance to view them 'close-up' during the regular lunch-time airpark opening and walk-round.

Sam Sweeney's Fiddle – Made in the Great War

SAM SWEENEY, BBC Radio 2 Folk Musician of the Year 2015 and fiddle player in folk super-band Bellowhead, is taking his show – Sam Sweeney's Fiddle: Made In The Great War on the road in September 2015.

After a triumphal tour in 2014, playing to packed houses the length and breadth of England, Sam, together with Bellowhead bandmate Paul Sartin and acclaimed concertina player Rob Harbron, will appear on stage with award-winning storyteller Hugh Lupton to tell the story of a violin that lay unfinished in a manila envelope for nearly a century. Eight years ago Sam Sweeney bought a violin in Oxford. It had all the appearance of a new instrument but the labels inside gave the date 1915, the name Richard S. Howard and the words 'Violin No. 6, Made in the Great War'.

Research revealed that the violin had been started, but never finished, by an amateur luthier and some-time music hall performer from Leeds called Richard Howard. Conscripted in 1915 at the age of 35, he was killed two years later at the battle of Messines near Ypres. 'Violin No 6' had been left unfinished in his workshop. The pieces were placed in a manila envelope and eventually wound up in an auction house almost 100 years later. The parts were bought, and the violin was finally finished, by luthier Roger Claridge in 2007. The fiddle was then placed in the window of his Oxford music shop where it was spotted and bought by Sam.

'Working on this show has completely changed the way that I see the First World War' says Sam. 'By looking at it through the story of one man, I have begun to understand so much more about war and its impact on people'.

Sam's show brings the reality of the First World War to life through the story of an ordinary man, his family and his comrades using story, music and film as well as playing the actual fiddle that Richard Howard started but never had the chance to finish.

Since taking the show on the road in 2014, another Richard Howard violin, 'No 2', has come to light, together with pictures and memorabilia of Richard himself. The story behind this fiddle continues to unfold bringing previously unknown descendants and relatives together for the first time at shows.

Sam Sweeney's Fiddle - Made in the Great War comes to Yeovil's Octagon Theatre on Monday, September 7th. For more details and to book (tickets £15) call 01935 422884 or visit the website at www.octagon-theatre.co.uk

Don't miss the guv'nor of folk rock this Thursday

ASHLEY HUTCHINGS is renowned as being a founder member of iconic band Fairport Convention and other successful folk rock bands including Steeleye Span and the Albion Band. Often referred to as the 'Guv'nor' of folk-rock in the UK, his musical credits also include hit solo albums and collaborations for film and television.

What is less well known about Ashley is his talent as a wordsmith. In 2014 he published his first book; Words Words Words; a personal selection of song lyrics, poems, sonnets and other writings that both span his entire career – and tell his story.

An evening in Ashley's company is an opportunity to listen to him tell the stories behind the writings, add detail to the history of the bands he has created and describe some of the many projects he has brought to fruition. Hutchings will be joined by talented violinist Ruth Angell.

Ashley Hutchings will appear at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, August 13th. Doors open 7.15pm for 8pm start. Tickets are £14 and £12.

Western Counties Heavy Horse Society

THE Western Counties Heavy Horse Society was formed in 1975 by a group of people who wanted to advance the interest of the Heavy Horse. Initially it was confined to the boundaries of Devon, Dorset and Somerset but our current membership of over 250 live in areas far beyond these counties. The Society is run by a Council of 12 members and events are always held in the South West.

Annually, we hold a 'Working Day' and 'Ploughing Match' to which members are given free entry. During the year we hold other activities i.e. talks, film shows, visits and social evenings. Our aim is to offer a practical service to horse owners and provide pleasure and recreation to those interested in the Heavy Horse.

WORKING DAY

A THEME 'From Plough to Loaf' is demonstrated and at the end of the day bread is baked and sold on the field. Horses work with a variety of vintage implements and corn is cut and harvested in the traditional way.

This year, the 40th Anniversary 'Working Weekend', will be held on Saturday and Sunday 22nd & 23rd August from 11am at Kingsdown Farm, Branscombe, Seaton, Devon, EX10 0PD (on the A3052) by kind permission of Mr. Gerald KNIGHT. The Irish Giant's love of Beer!

IT WAS 21 years ago this summer that Brian Jones first visited Pecorama with his loco 'Finn MacCool', which when translated means the 'Irish Giant'. Brian has since travelled each and every year from Newtownards near Belfast, a 275 mile journey by road plus an eight hour ferry crossing.

Brian's annual pilgrimage to Beer began in 1995 when he saw an advert in Peco's own publication, The Railway Modeller. The advert carried an appeal for owners of suitable sized 7 ¼ inch locos, to attend Pecorama's first Steam and Model Festival, in June of that year.

Brian was the very first to respond, booking his place for his Thomas II class loco, 'Finn MacCool'. For him there was a sense of returning 'Finn MacCool' to his ancestral home, as the very first Thomas II type locomotive was built for the Beer Heights Light Railway back in 1979.

The combination of the Railway and the lovely village of Beer itself proved an irresistible mix for Brian and in subsequent years, he has brought his wife and grandchildren from East Grinstead with him, staying locally in the village for the duration of the school summer holidays.

In 2002 Brian qualified as a driver for the Beer Heights Light Railway and has worked thereafter as a bona fide member of the BHLR team.

Strangely, for a railway locomotive then, Brian's lovingly polished and immaculately maintained engine must have travelled many many more miles by road than rails!

What happens to your 'grey matter' when you retire?

By Claire Spreadbury, Press Association

"Retirement means you have to 'reinvent' yourself," says Annie Kaszina, coach and author of Do You Choose Your Dog More Carefully Than Your Husband? "For some people that works really well, for others it does not; they struggle to find a sense of meaning and purpose. They become less valuable in society's eyes. One of the questions we hear all the time is: 'What do you do?' It's a question that presupposes your worth and interests are intimately connected with your working role, not who you are."

"While the capacity for heavy physical work may decline with the years, the capacity for creative thinking does not. June Brown is a case in point. She is perfectly capable of deciding for herself when she needs to scale back. The country needs more icons like her and Bruce Forsyth in the public eye, to remind us that older just means more years on the clock. It doesn't have to mean physically or mentally infirm.

"Besides, working longer may well also save the Government money. An interesting report from the French government suggests that people who work longer are significantly less likely to suffer from dementia."

Walking Football

Walking Football

LOVE Football? Want to stay Active? Walking Football, a slower version of the beautiful game!

The game is small sided, with no running on or off the ball, very little contact and kick-ins instead of throw- ins. With less stress on the body and no real sudden change of direction or cutting movements, the game allows participants to play in a safe environment.

Walking football has become increasingly popular and is designed to help people live an active lifestyle, as well as to support getting people back into football who have stopped playing due to age or injury. Long-term benefits can include reduced heart rate and blood pressure and better mobility.

As well as offering health benefits walking Football offers social benefits - the opportunity for participants to meet new people, prevent isolation and create interaction for individuals and small groups.

Sessions are taking place across the three counties for men and women keen to come back to playing the game or brand new and wanting to stay healthy, make friends and socialise. For those who want competition they are also developing a Walking Football League across the region.

For details on how to join in with sessions in Dorset or to enter a team into the league please contact Justine Mosley at Justine.mosley@dorsetfa.com or 01202 688277.

Bymead House Nursing & Residential Home

BYMEAD House Nursing & Residential Home in Charmouth has been owned by Susan Blacklock - a qualified nurse with a background specialising in Community Nursing - for 20 years.

Her philosophy is to provide truly individual and therapeutic support including complimentary therapies such as acupuncture, to whatever degree is wanted or required.

She has always believed that this support should extend to the families and friends of those living at Bymead House as they form an important integral part of the care network within the home.

Bymead has always been proactive with the care provision and facilities on offer to the residents.

We have recently achieved accreditation for the 'Gold Standards Framework in Care Homes', this enhances the excellent care we already provide and is part of a national initiative to achieve the best quality of life for our residents particularly towards the end of life.

A very important part of the support Bymead provides is their extensive activities programme. In line with their philosophy of holistic care, these activities are tailored to suit the individual needs of their residents.

The varied weekly programme reflects hobbies the residents may have had in their previous home and any new interests are encouraged and supported. Also outings to favourite destinations are chosen by the residents.

Sue Bartlett-Hall, activities co-ordinator, has been instrumental for many years in taking forward Susan Blacklock's vision of the therapeutic importance of social activities in relation to the happiness and wellbeing of people living within a care home.

Using local suppliers has always been important to Bymead House, this ensures that Bymead have frequent deliveries of fresh local produce each week enabling them to provide a varied, nutritious and tasty menu and special diets are also catered for.

Bymead continues to grow and develop as a vital care provider in the community.

Residents are encouraged to make the rooms their own personal space with favourite pieces of furniture, pictures and paintings.

All bedrooms are single and most are en-suite whilst each room has a telephone and television

Bymead House would welcome any visits to the home, at any time, to see the benefits on offer.

Our new website has some lovely photos of the newly decorated areas; you can find this at bymeadhouse.com

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Tip Top Trees

Tip Top Trees has been established for 16 years, based in Honiton we cover all areas of East Devon and Exeter.

Our services include all aspects of tree work including, crown reduction, pruning and felling, TPO Application and Conservation Orders.

All other aspects of garden care, fencing and landscaping undertaken.

We are fully insured and qualified and we pride ourselves on our quality of service and providing a Tip Top job every time.

Was started by Sean Kelly in May 1998, after several years of working with other tree companies,

Sean decided that his future prospects in the industry that he loved would be better served by going it alone.

He spent several months gaining the extra qualifications needed to work by himself and carrying out market research to put together his businessplan.

During this time he went to the Princes Youth Business Trust with his ideas and with their help was successfully granted a loan to start up Tip Top Trees.

After working by himself for 6 months Sean realised the best way forward was to employ someone else. He did this and since then the business has gone from strength to strength.

Sean has always taken great pride in his work and all jobs are completed to his own high standards. As you will see from the online Portfolio.

"Thanks for visiting our site" Sean Kelly.

Fastest ever Audi S8 sets new benchmark with 605PS and 189mph

SUPERCAR pace and archetypal Audi A8 luxury converge in the Audi S8 plus, a new evolution of the already formidable S8 performance saloon developed using the combined expertise of Audi and its specialist high performance division quattro GmbH. Ramping up power from the 520PS offered by the 'standard' S8 to an intoxicating 605PS, the S8 plus is also capable of producing up to 750Nm of torque on demand - the highest output of any Audi in the current model range. It will open for ordering in October, priced from £97,700 OTR, and first UK deliveries are expected to commence in January 2016.

Encased by the lightweight, predominantly aluminium Audi Space Frame, which in isolation weighs just 231kg, is a modified version of the 4.0 TFSI engine already used to power the current 520PS S8. This sonorous V8 biturbo unit has been extensively modified and gains special engine management control with speed and charge pressure boosting to its modified exhaust valves. The inner geometry of the turbocharger has also been optimised for efficiency.

An overboost function facilitates the maximum torque elevation from 700Nm (516.3 lb-ft) to a muscular 750Nm (553.2 lb-ft) when required. As a result, a mere 3.8 seconds is all it takes for the stately super saloon to blast past 62 mph, after which it swiftly pulls towards an electronically limited 155mph top speed. Upon choosing the optional dynamic package, top speed increases to 189mph, and fade-resistant carbon-fibre reinforced ceramic brakes are added, featuring brake calipers finished in anthracite-grey with the Audi ceramic logo.

The full force of this prodigious output is transmitted to the road via an eight-speed tiptronic transmission and quattro all-wheel drive. A sports differential apportions the torque between the rear wheels for optimum directional stability. Chassis highlights include the S sports adaptive air suspension and dynamic steering, both of which have been tuned specifically for the S8 plus. UK specification models are fitted with 21-inch alloy wheels in a unique high-gloss black double-spoke design shod with specially designed size 275/35 tyres.

The standard dual-branch sports exhaust system opens out into two oval high-gloss black tailpipes on the left and right. It is modified by quattro GmbH and gives the S8 plus an unmistakable V8 sound.

Toyota Safety Sense features introduced for Aygo and Yaris

WHERE Toyotas are concerned, being small is no barrier to benefiting from the latest safety technology. The Aygo city car and Yaris supermini are now available with Toyota Safety Sense, providing a suite of features that can help prevent an accident happening, or reduce the severity of an impact.

Toyota Safety Sense is being rolled out across the range following its introduction earlier this year in the new Avenis and Auris. Aygo and Yaris customers can now specify the package as an option on their new car, adding to the models' already impressive active and passive safety features.

On Aygo, Toyota Safety Sense provides a laser-controlled Pre-Collision System that warns the driver of an imminent collision with a vehicle ahead (Forward Collision Warning) and readies Pre-Crash Brake Assist to deliver emergency braking as soon as the brake pedal is pressed. Should the driver fail to take action after the warning, the system will initiate Autonomous Emergency Braking to reduce speed by about 19mph, potentially bringing the car to a stop, to prevent a collision or reduce the force of impact.

The Forward Collision Warning works at speeds between 10 and 86mph, when the relative speed between the Toyota and the car ahead is greater than 10mph. The Pre-Crash Brake Assist functions at speeds between 19 and 49mph, with relative vehicle speeds greater than 19mph. For Autonomous Emergency Braking, the speed range is from seven to 49mph.

A Lane Departure Alert function is also included. This monitors lane markings on the road and helps prevent accidents and head-on collisions caused by a vehicle moving out of its lane. If the car starts to deviate from its lane without the turn indicators being used, the system alerts the driver with visual and audible warnings.

The same Toyota Safety Sense features are available for Yaris, together with Automatic High Beam. This detects both the headlights of oncoming vehicles, and the tail lights of vehicles ahead, automatically switching between high and low beams to avoid dazzling other drivers and improving the driver's night-time vision.

Toyota Safety Sense is available now as an option on all Aygo models apart from x grade, price £375. The package for Yaris (all grades apart from Active) costs £400.

Struggling to break the drink drive habit

BRAKE, the road safety charity, has reiterated its call for a zero-tolerance drink drive limit, in response to government figures showing Britain is still failing to adequately tackle its drink drive problem. A final estimate shows 240 people were killed by drivers over the legal drink drive limit in 2013, while provisional estimates suggest at least that number were killed again in 2014.

However, the number of people seriously injured in drink drive crashes did fall by 8% to 1,100 from 2012 to 2013, with drink drive casualties of all severities down 17% to 8,270 in the same period. Brake has cautiously welcomed this news.

The figures show that the profile of Britain's illegal drink drivers has remained largely the same:

Three quarters (74%) of those killed and seriously injured are male.

More than three in ten (31%) drivers killed aged 25 to 39 are over the drink drive limit – the highest of any age group.

A quarter of drink drive deaths and serious injuries result from crashes where a young driver (17-24 years old) was over the limit.

Brake is highlighting international evidence showing that lower drink drive limits and increased enforcement help to bring down drink drive crashes.

Meanwhile, provisional figures for the year ending March 2015 have again shown little progress in overall road casualty reduction, with casualties of all severities down 2% to 186,060 – too small a fall to be statistically significant. Brake advocates the reintroduction of ambitious casualty reduction targets to stimulate meaningful progress, and is calling on the government to adopt a 'vision zero' approach.

Julie Townsend, deputy chief executive, Brake, said: "While the overall reduction in drink drive casualties is encouraging, it is sad and disappointing to learn that the number of deaths has remained the same – as it has approximately since the government axed road casualty reduction targets in 2010. Education on drink driving is important, but it can only achieve so much. It seems we have reached a point where further meaningful reductions in devastating and needless drink drive deaths and serious injuries require more decisive action. Brake is calling for a zero-tolerance drink drive limit and greater priority and resourcing for traffic policing: evidenced steps we're confident would help tackle this menace. Scotland has already seen promising signs of reducing drink drive rates after lowering its limit. In this context, it is unacceptable for the Westminster government to maintain the highest drink drive limit in Europe."

Local sport – cricket round-up

by Howard Larcombe

Mixed fortunes for Cidemen in cup

North Perrott squeeze home in thriller – South Petherton in 10 wicket hammering

Royal London One-day Cup (50 overs)

Northamptonshire 249 for 6 beat Somerset 247 for 8 by four wickets

Monday, August 3rd

SADLY, Somerset Cricket Club's hopes of ending their 10-year trophy drought all-but came to a premature end last Monday.

The Cidemen, went into the game probably needing to win all of their four remaining Royal London 50-over cup matches, failed at the first hurdle when they went down by four wickets against cash-strapped Northampton at their Wantage Road home.

Jim Allenby, whose appointment as skipper continues to mystify the die-hard Somerset supporters on social media, opted to bat first having called correctly.

All of the top order got starts with James Hildreth once again top-scoring with a patient 55 while Tom Cooper continued his fine run with the bat with 48.

But Allenby's painstaking slow innings of eight from 19 deliveries highlighted a ponderous performance by the visiting batsmen as they closed on 248 for 8 from 50 overs with slow left-armers, Graeme White, one of three spinners used by the hosts, returning fine figures of 4 for 37.

In reply the Steelbacks were always up with the rate. England ODI hopeful David Willey smashed a run-a-ball 91 with five sixes while wicket keeper Ben Duckett made 61.

Pete Trego took the new ball for Somerset and claimed 2 for 32 while Max Waller (2-50) also struck twice including a stunning catch off his own bowling to dismiss the hard-hitting Willey.

There was a late wobble from the hosts who stumbled to the line but still had an over in hand when they reached 249 for 6.

◆ One ray of sunshine at the County Ground this season has been the emergence of TOM ABELL who has been nominated in the LV County Championship breakthrough player award for 2015.

The Taunton-born 21-year-old opening batsmen who has hit fight half-centuries in his first 15 first class matches and currently averages 37.79 takes his place in the list of seven other hopefuls.

Yorkshire 175 lost to Somerset 178 for 4 by six wickets.

Wednesday, August 5th

YORKSHIRE won the toss and batted first with Somerset aiming to keep alive their faint hopes of qualification for the quarter-finals before a Scarborough festival crowd of 5,000.

Josh Davey, after receiving a long overdue call-up from the 2nd XI, was given the new ball and made a great start when trapped Andy Hodd lbw in the first over.

The dream start continued in the next over when Craig Overton had Glen Maxwell (4) snapped up at midwicket by Jack Leach before Davey returned to have new skipper Alex Lees caught behind to leave the Yorkers staggering on 7 for 3 after just 16 deliveries!

Next to fall with the score on 22 was England test discard Gary Ballance (6) who edged a ball from the impressive Overton (2-19) into his stumps.

A 70-run stand for the fifth wicket at better than a run a ball was eventually broken by Leach who clean bowled Will Rhodes for 37.

Fine spells from Pete Trego (4-29), who struck three times in as many overs, and Leach (2-25) then reduced the hosts to 108 for 9.

But a spirited last wicket stand of 67 between teenagers Matt Fisher (34) and Karl Carver (35no) who both scored career bests before they were finally parted one ball from the end with the score on 175.

In reply openers Adam Hose (19) and Tom Abell put on 29 for the first wicket before the former was caught behind.

Pete Trego came and went after scoring a breezy 19 and Tom Cooper, having been dropped twice fell for 13, but at the other end Abell was proving a calming influence making a competition-best 80 (10x4) before being caught down the legside with just 14 required.

It was left to James Hildreth (23no) to see the Cidemen home at 178 for 4 in the 39th over.

Overton, whose initial spell returned superb figures of 8-2-8-2, and Abell were the star turns in a much needed victory.

Upcoming fixtures (Royal London Cup)

Monday (August 17th) Somerset v Surrey (Taunton, 10.30am start).

Tuesday (August 18th) Leicestershire v Somerset (Grace Road, 10.30am start).

WEPL

A HALF-CENTURY from Charlie Vickery and a superb five-wicket haul from Louis Kraucamp couldn't save struggling ILMINSTER 1ST XI from a 24-run Premier Division defeat against visiting Downend.

After opting to bat first Downend piled up an imposing 288 for 9 with number five Callum Loud cracking a fine 121. Kraucamp had earlier made inroads in the top order in his spell of 10-2-36-5 but had very little support.

The Bears' reply saw Vickery lead the way with 61 and there were also good knocks from Jon Warry (49), Kraucamp (37) and skipper Sam Spurway (30).

But they were eventually dismissed for 264 in the last over of the scheduled 50. Ilminster 9pts Downend 20.

Chard 1st XI made the long 240-mile round trip to Lechlade in the Premier 2 Division on Saturday.

After experiencing the heavy traffic on the M5 and M4, Chard skipper John Scott won the toss and decided to bat.

The Chard innings centred around young Reid Mawdsley who batted with great concentration for 92 and skill to see his team to a competitive score as the innings ended on 211 in the 47th over.

Chard started to regret not using up all their allotted 50 overs when Lechlade made a rapid start to their innings.

However, some useful mid-innings bowling by John Scott saw the hosts struggle and they were dismissed eight runs short on 203 in the last over.

Scott took his first five-wicket haul of the season meaning that the long journey home was a happy one!

The West of England League is being reorganised for 2016. Local clubs will not have to make long treks into Wiltshire and Gloucestershire as Premier 2 is being split geographically. As a result relegation from the existing Premier 2 is unlikely for Chard.

◆ Chard CC are holding an English Cricket Board "Open Day" on Sunday, August 30th.

In conjunction with sponsors Waitrose, Cricket Clubs nationwide are encouraging the public to try out Cricket. The Chard Club's day starts at 10.30am with a six-a-side competition.

The Club is keen to attract new members of any age. Both men and women are welcome.

The Youth Section of the Club are organising nets where visitors can try out their skills in batting and bowling. There will be a Bouncy Castle and other Cricket based competitions.

The bar will be open all day and there will be a BBQ. There will be music in the evening in the Clubhouse.

For further details contact John Scott 07969366503.

NORTH PERROTT 1ST XI maintained their bid for the Somerset Division title with a nail-biting one-wicket victory in a low-scoring encounter at Staplegrave.

All looked fine for the hosts as they reached 51 for no loss and 95 for 3.

Ilton CC efforts recognised

THE recent Ilton Cricket Club 'Big Weekend' started with an official ECB Clubmark Accreditation presentation made by Brian Hoyle (Somerset Cricket Club Development Officer).

This was in recognition for putting in place a high quality set up within the club, and development of youth cricket in the community.

Club Chairman Tim Lloyd said: "This is a fantastic achievement for us to receive such a prestigious award considering we are village club."

He also thanked committee members Dave Dibb for leading this project, along with coaches Damian Price, Amber Watson and Nick Auger and committee members Jeremy Jane Mitchell, Pete Ash, Nick Watson.

The start of the weekend also saw a tournament between Ilton's four junior teams (Sabres, Gladiators, Lions and Dragons) which showcased excellent bowling, batting and fielding throughout the three games that they played.

Dragons won on top

The Dragons won all three of their matches and were crowned the inaugural champions, and pictured are the winning team with the trophy.

Kenny Edwards was awarded the Player-of-the-Tournament trophy for his attitude, effort teamwork and sportsmanship.

But a spectacular collapse saw them shot out for just 127 with Jake Symes (3-7), Brett Johnson (3-17), Alex Eckland (2-21) and Will Ireland (2-43) all enjoying success with the ball.

In reply, Perrott lost Eckland for a duck but were in good shape at 70 for 2.

But once again the bowlers took control and in the end it took a gritty 18-run stand from Ireland and Stacey Hawes at 10 and 11 to see them crawl over the line at 130 for 9 in the 41st over. Staplegrave 5pts North Perrott 16.

Meanwhile, half-centuries from Liam Carrison (77, 10x4) and Jon Dalwood (52no) saw CHARD 2NDS to a comfortable seven wicket win over Cheltenham 2nds at Denning Field.

The pair got together with the score on 52 for 1 and proceeded to compile a match-winning stand of 91.

Earlier the visitors had been restricted to 176 for 7 from their 45 overs having been 48 for no wicket with Steve Denning (2-39), Joe Draper (2-37) and Neil Rogers (2-48) all striking twice. Chard 20pts Cheltenham 2nds 5.

ILMINSTER 2NDS remain in midtable in the Bristol & Somerset Division after a five-wicket reverse at leaders Lansdown.

Ilminster won the toss and batted. Useful innings from Steve Allsop (56), Alan Sims (49), George Hayward (41) and Chris Warry (35) saw them post 222 for 9 from their allotted 45 overs.

Then wickets for Hayward (3-26) and Liam Knight (2-25) had the hosts in degree of trouble at 57 for 5.

But an unbroken sixth wicket stand between skipper Shaun Smith (56no) and George Wood (105no) saw them ease to victory at 226 for 5 in the 42nd over. Lansdown 21pts Ilminster 7.

Ten-man Tigers beaten on historic day

BY HOWARD LARCOMBE

AXMINSTER TOWN 1 St MARTINS 3

South West Peninsula League (Division One East)

AXMINSTER Town's first ever league fixture at their excellent new Tigers Way home ended in defeat before a bumper crowd of 263.

The Tigers, playing their first 'home' match in two years, fell behind in the 11th minute when Darren Billingsley netted the first goal of the South-West Peninsula League season.

Things got worse for the hosts when Gary McAuley was dismissed after receiving a second yellow card. Ax felt the experienced defender had been pushed immediately prior to his second card.

The Saints capitalised and the lead was extended to 3-0 at the interval.

The second-half saw the 10-men put in a battling performance with keeper Scott Wells-Burr pulling off fine penalty save. They got some reward for their efforts when Ben Turner bagged a piece of history with the first competitive goal for Axminster on the new ground deep into injury time.

SIDMOUTH TOWN 3 ALPHINGTON 1

SIDMOUTH started their South West Peninsula League campaign with a home game against Alphington and, after a good pre-season, expectations were high.

They started the match with a high tempo and wingers Jake Boyland and Mark Pavey gave the opposing full backs a torrid time all day.

It was MoM Pavey who set up the opener in the 15th minute, his cross was chested home from six yards by Riki Pitter.

Sidmouth went 2-0 up in the 30th minute when Cameron Vere's cross was turned into the net by an Alphas defender. The Vikings' new look young defence kept the experienced visiting forwards quiet although they did have an effort ruled for off-side.

The second half saw Alphington start the but the well-organised Vikings defence defended well but also needed debutant keeper Alex Bowring to be at his best saving well from Alphington's Densham on several occasions.

The killer third goal arrived on the hour when Pitter's shot was but he made no mistake from the rebound.

Alphington grabbed a consolation when Sidmouth switched off from a free kick and, after Bowring had made three point blank saves and centre back Jamie Newbery had blocked on the line, the ball was forced home.

Sidmouth: Bowring, White, Clenahan, Newbery, Cox, Pavey, Doble (Capt), Small, Boyland, Vere, Pitter. Subs: Facey, Swinger, Dixon, Newham

DEVIZES 0 CHARD TOWN 3

Toolstation Western League Division One

CHARD Town continued their superb form from the end of last season by kicking off the new campaign with a 3-0 win over Devizes Town at Nursted Road.

However, things didn't start too well for the Robins who lost playmaker Andy Martin in the pre-match warm up - the ensuing reshuffle saw Darren Hutchings take the vacant slot in the engine room.

Chard opened the scoring in the 25th minute when striker James Boyland coolly rounded home keeper Mark Tilley before rolling the ball into the empty net. Robins' keeper Jason Hutchings was then called into action with a couple of smart saves.

Oscar Latas doubled the lead on the hour and Scott Holland rounded things off with a fine header three minutes later.

SOUTH PETHERTON 5 DRIMPTON 1

Tom Facey Invitational Cup Final

BOTH sides started brightly on the Combe slope on Friday evening but Danny Kidir put Pethy in front and added a second five minutes later.

Drimpton settled and pulled a goal back through Barry Hayne. But just before half-time Tim John restored the Somerset side's two-goal cushion.

Drimpton went chasing the game after the turnaround but found keeper Si Taylor in fine form.

Kidir then completed his hat-trick before Nick Hole rounded things off.

Fond memories evoked by John Adams Memorial Day

ON Sunday, August 2nd, Forton Rangers Football Club held a memorial day for their President John Adams who sadly passed away last October having fought a brave six-year battle against prostate cancer writes Adam Smith.

John was responsible for the formation of the club when he allowed Mike and Eddie Gage to start a team on a field belonging to Manor Farm, of which he was the tenant farmer.

Over the years John had been committee member, reserve team manager, groundsman, linesman, President and player, last lacing up his boots when he was 61!

He was also responsible, along with Andrew Denning, for building the current clubhouse and was one of the driving forces behind the years of fundraising to try to get a bigger and better clubhouse and village hall. He was the centre of the club and the village and loved nothing more than bringing everyone together for sport or a fun event.

In the early 90s John setup a reserve team and it was one of those original players, Ian Banfield, who hatched the idea for this fund raiser in his honour.

In the beginning the plan was to get together that original reserve team to play against a team made up of ex-Forton players. However, interest was so high that it quickly turned into two games - one for the over 40s and one for under 40s.

On the day, between 100 and 150 people turned out. Speeches were made before the matches, flowers presented to John's widow Sue and a minute's applause was held.

In the first game, a team made up primarily of those original reserves lost 3-0 against some of the other old timers captained by Roy Board.

The game was played at a very leisurely pace, with the first goal coming from a penalty following a typically clumsy challenge by Steve Baker.

Paddy Behan produced a typically masterful display for the winning team, running the game and allegedly keeping Andy Bevins in his back pocket!

Before the second game, a minute's silence was respectfully observed for Timmy Hames, another great of Forton's past who sadly passed earlier this year.

The under 40s match saw the current team go behind after Joe Simmons' unmarked header was parried by stopper Adam Smith with James Melhuish on hand to tap in the loose ball and they went to lose 4-3.

Huge thanks must go to Ian Banfield, Barry Male, Alan Nottley, Debs Baker, Andy Cottey, Derek & Neva Bond and Ian Ordord for all their help.

A total of £430 was raised on the day which will be going to the Beacon Centre Cancer Unit at Musgrove Park Hospital, Taunton.

Further funds were raised through sales of John's book 'Tales from the Farm' which has been published since his death with all proceeds going towards the new community hall and changing rooms project.

Copies are available to buy for £10. Contact Sue Adams on 01460 63240 or Adam Smith on 07765 676774 for more details.
